Re: EEOC Charge No. 524-2013-00152
Ludsin v. Metlife

Dear Mr. Ludsin,

The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (hereinafter referred to as the "Commission") has reviewed the above-referenced charge according to our charge prioritization procedures. These procedures, which are based on a reallocation of the Commission's staff resources, apply to all open charges in our inventory and call for us to focus our limited resources on those cases that are most likely to result in findings of violations of the laws we enforce.

In accordance with these procedures, we have examined the information and evidence you submitted supporting your allegations of discrimination based on age, religion, and retaliation.

Respondent's position statement has been previously shared with you. Your rebuttal to this position statement has been received and analyzed. Based upon this analysis the Commission is unable to conclude that the information establishes a violation of Federal law on the part of Respondent. This does not certify that Respondent is in compliance with the statutes. No finding is made as to any other issue that might be construed as having been raised by this charge.

The Commission's processing of this charge has been concluded. Included with this letter is your Notice of Dismissal and Right to Sue. Following this dismissal, you may only pursue this matter by filing suit against the Respondent named in the charge within 90 days of receipt of said notice. Otherwise, your right to sue will be lost.

Please contact Investigator John Douglass at (212) 336-3765 or John.Douglass@eeoc.gov if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

THE PARTICULARS ARE (If additional paper is needed, attach extra sheet(s)):

1. This is an action for compensatory and punitive damages, proximately resulting from Respondent's conduct in violation of Title VII, 42 U.S.C. Section 2000-c et seq, 42 U.S.C. Section 1981, and the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, 29 U.S.C. Sections 621-634 and Sections 296 et seq of the New York State Executive Law. 2. Charging Party Steven A. Ludsin ("Ludsin") is a 64 year old white male of the Jewish religion and, and is, and at all times relevant hereto was, a resident of East Hampton, Suffolk County New York and New York City, New York County, New York. 3. Upon information and belief, Respondent MetLife Group, Inc. ("MetLife") is a New York corporation with offices at, inter alia, 1 MetLife Plaza, 27-01 Queens Plaza North, Long Island City, New York and at 200 Park Avenue, New York, New York and at 1095 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10036-6796. Barnum Financial Group is an Agency of MetLife at 6 Corporate Drive, Shelton, Connecticut 06484. 4. Commencing on January 26, 2007 Ludsin was continuously recruited and subsequently employed by MetLife until MetLife terminated his employment on April 27, 2012. 5. From approximately May 2007 until MetLife's termination of his employment on or about April 27, 2012, Charging Party performed the roles and responsibilities of Financial Representative and informally, the Managing Director and Branch Manager, the latter 2 categories without compensation but was induced to serve through coercion for fear of retaliation. 6. During the years prior to the April 27, 2007 termination, Charging Party's agency, was located at 1 Penn Plaza, New York, New York County, New York, and then was closed and substituted with 707 Westchester Avenue Suite 105, White Plains, New York 10604. Barnum Financial, an agency of MetLife was consistently in the top of all MetLife agencies nationwide in terms of production and profitability. 7. During his employment by MetLife, Charging Party's compensation was at all times performance-based. 8. During the first two years of Charging Party's employment by MetLife, Charging Party's average annual compensation was approximately between $25,000 to $50,000. 9. In May 2007, Charging Party was qualified by the screening committee to enter the program to be licensed to sell insurance and investment products. 10. In January 2007, Charging Party was fraudulently induced to create a New York City office for Barnum an agency of MetLife. The Managing Director, David A. Rizzo represented there would be a temporary office and then a Fifth Avenue office. By December 21, 2007, Paul Blanco, the head of Barnum advised by telephone conference call there would be efforts to find an office in New York City. That representation was false and fraudulent because there was no realistic financial commitment to creation of the New York City Office. The criteria for invitation to join Barnum were success in recruitment, retention and new business. 11. Charging Party Ludsin was told that there would be corporate financial marketing, and high-end marketing when in fact it was a case of retail one on one appointment based commission based method. This fact was not revealed during the many months preceding the beginning of the compensation date which was August 13, 2007. Many email exchanges and meetings took place which provided ample opportunity to provide the truth of the expectations. This is a classic bait and switch predatory tactic which creates grounds for compensatory and punitive damages. See attached sheet for additional paper needed for PARTICULARS

THE PARTICULARS ARE (Additional paper is needed, these are the attached extra sheet(s)):

12. Upon information and belief, approximately all MetLife representatives nationwide earn $50,000. Respondent's used lack of production as a pretext for termination. Actually it was based on age and religious discrimination and a goal to cover up the fraud of being unable and unwilling to commit the necessary financial resources to create and maintain a New York City office. In addition since the resources that were not provided rendered the ability to earn compensation impossible, Charging Party Ludsin reached out to Lori E. Goodian, Director of the MetLife Global Talent & Development to improve the relationship in March 2012 prior to termination on April 27, 2012. Goodian recommended a meeting with newly hired Claire M. Burns, Relationship Manager which was planned on or about March 27, 2012 to take place in April 2012. Charging Party believes termination was a retaliatory action due to his efforts to report the fraud and deplorable working environment characterized by hazing, harassment and humiliation. 13. The Barnum agency managed by Barnum was consistently within the top of all agencies in terms of profitability but there was no commitment to create a viable work environment. It was a deliberate plan to bait and switch and most of the recruited younger financial representatives chose to leave. There was one other older financial representative who remained, Jose Guevara-Escudero, Ph.D, CFP but he was not required to attend many meetings that the Charging Party was expected to attend without compensation. Ludsin, the Charging Party was expected to market the services of Barnum without compensation and assume the role of Managing Director after David A. Rizzo, the recruiting Managing Director left on or about May 19, 2008. Ludsin assisted the newly hired public relations specialist Jane Snaider without compensation during June and July 2007. 14. For some period of time prior to and up to and including the termination of Ludsin's employment on April 27, 2012, MetLife engaged in discrimination against its employees in the terms and conditions of employment on the basis of age, gender, race, and national origin. 15. According to a recent EEOC case, Stephen DiGirolamo v. MetLife, 10 CV 01537, USDJ Richard M. Berman, SDNY, during the period of time prior to and up to and including the termination of Plaintiff Stephen A. DiGirolamo employment on December 27, 2007, MetLife allegedly engaged in a discriminatory practice as a result of which Caucasian males, such as that plaintiff, were terminated and/or replaced as Managing Directors and as Regional Vice Presidents by younger persons, in some cases by younger females, and in many cases, by younger minority females. 16. In addition, during the period of time prior to and up to and including the termination of Plaintiff DiGirolamo's employment on December 27, 2007, in many instances the male Managing Directors and in at least two instances, the male regional Vice Presidents who were terminated or replaced were, like males of Italian national origin. 16. In this Charge of Discrimination, Ludsin was subjected to a displaced persons camp work environment characterized by age discrimination and anti-Semitism. Essentially despite promises of employment the work environment was like a temporary agency. It took a year to get an access key and over a year to get a stable workspace. Ludsin is keenly aware of anti-Semitism because he was a member of the President's Commission on the Holocaust and the original United States Holocaust Memorial Council. He served starting during the Carter Administration and for a total of 10 years as a Presidential appointee. There were derogatory comments and emails with derision and condescension based on his Jewish faith that caused post traumatic stress disorder. The longer Ludsin worked in this work environment the worse the conditions became. 17. It took 5 months just to get a payout table for a substantial client who purchased an $850,000 variable deferred annuity. The original managing director expected Ludsin to perform menial tasks such as stamping envelopes for the deputy sales manager who was conducting a health insurance sales business which was not sanctioned by MetLife. When MetLife terminated Charging Party's employment on April 27, 2007, there was no fair performance-based reason to terminate Charging Party's employment since the shifting workplace rendered the responsibilities impossible to perform. 18. Upon information and belief, Barnum terminated Charging Party's employment with the discriminatory intent of replacing him with younger and non-Jewish representatives. Jewish representatives were underrepresented within Barnum and the entire executive structure of MetLife. 19. On December 12, 2012, Charging Party filed with the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission "EEOC" an intake questionnaire of discrimination on the basis of age and religion. In that Intake Questionnaire, Charging Party alleged inter alia, that MetLife and Barnum had engaged in a pattern and practice by which Caucasian males have been terminated as financial representatives for no apparent reason and replaced with younger persons who were generally non-Jewish. 20. As of the date of Charging Party's filing of the EEOC Complaint, MetLife had not created a New York City office replacing the Charging Party's original temporary agency location and never made a commitment to follow through with the original fraudulent representations made. 21. In terminating Charging Party, MetLife discriminated against him in the terms and conditions of employment on the basis of age, and/or religion, in violation of Title VII U.S.C. Section 2000-e et seq., 42 U.S.C. Section 1981, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, 29 U.S.C. Sections 621-634, and Section 296 et seq of the New York State Executive Law.
